Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (to be filed on December 21, 2009) to no later than Friday February 12, 2010. The parties further stipulate that no later than Monday, March 15, 2010, Defendant shall file any reply brief. The parties stipulate to this schedule (which corresponds to the class certification motion briefing schedule) in good faith and not for the purposes of delay, but to prevent either party from having to brief these motions over the holidays. The parties request that the Court rule on Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment prior to ruling on Plaintiff's Motion for Class Certification (Docket # 100).

The parties further stipulate that with respect to Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the Class Breach of Contract Claim (Doc. No. 102) and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the Class Breach of Duty Claim (Doc. No. 104), Defendant's responses will not be required until after the Court rules on Defendant's to-be-filed Summary Judgment Motion and 30 days after the Court rules on Plaintiff's Motion for Class Certification (Docket # 100). This request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay and is intended to conserve the resources of both the Court and the Parties.
